7 .FUTURE SCOPE

Future Scope of Interior Designing in India 2023 is in huge demand. There is a massive transformation in lifestyle and the way the working class has evolved; besides, the growing economy and the need for offices have increased the demand for professional interiors; gone are the days of Sarkari offices and old Government buildings. Due to the rise in property rates and the increase in nuclear families, many people prefer small apartments. The ingenuity of interior designers is much needed to make use of small spaces or save space besides making sure that beauty and aesthetics are not compromised.
